There are an estimated 4.5 million victims of forced sexual exploitation in the world. In the US, many of those are recruited and sold on the web.

What will you do to stop it?

Join us as we design new methods for collecting, visualizing, and analyzing data on sex trafficking, and develop innovative ways to disrupt it.

When: January 23-24

Where: District Hall, 75 Northern Ave
Boston, MA

Who: Data Scientists, Social Scientists, Data Visualization Experts, Social Network Analysts, and Sex Trafficking Domain Experts
